

Sample Itinerary

Sample Itinerary

24 hour Prime Time Ruaha Safari

Game Drives
Walking Safaris

When to go?

Ruaha Park can be experienced throughout the year, though the driest months are June to December. It is the most popular time to visit the parks due to the concentration of animals. The very best time to travel to Southern Tanzania is probably late July to early November. The coldest months are June and July, however days are usually warm and cloudless. The rainy season starts from late December to April and the difference is stunning.

MAPPING YOUR SAFARI

- A Ruaha National Park
- B Udzungwa Mountains National Park
- C Mikumi National Park
- D Selous Game Reserve

ITINERARY OVERVIEW

Date	Activity	Accommodation
Day 1	Depart Iringa mid morning Arrive at Ruaha National Park Check In at accommodations & take lunch Afternoon/Evening game drive Overnight in at Ruaha Park	TANAPA Facilities or Tandala Tented Camp
Day 2	Early Breakfast (with optional birdwatching) Morning game safari to see the animals feeding before the heat of the day or returning from the hunt Depart for Iringa after lunch	TANAPA Facilities or Tandala Tented Camp

Optional Activities Available

Walking Safari - 4 to 6 hrs

Accompanied by park rangers, a walk through the african bush is a wonderful way to experience the savannah instead of the sound of the engine running

Not recommended during Feb-May due to heavy bush cover

Night Game Drive

See an entire different aspect of the park with many nocturnal animals & predators. This is when the big cats such as lions & leopards are actively hunting

Ask your booking agent for price details

Starting Price is $270 person based on 2 people sharing.